III. Proxy

The Company provides the following three proxy forms as prescribed by the Department of Business Development, Ministry of Commerce.

- Proxy Form A is a general and simple form.
- Proxy Form B specifies voting guidelines for the proxy.
- Proxy Form C is used only in case of foreign shareholders who appoint the Custodian in Thailand to be in charge of his/her shares.

Shareholders who cannot attend the Meeting may appoint a person as their proxy by taking the following steps.

- (1) Complete only one of the above proxy forms The Proxy Grantors who are common shareholders may use either Proxy Form A or B. The Custodians as Proxy Grantors may use only Proxy Form C.
- (2) Authorize a person to attend and vote at the meeting on his/her behalf by specifying the name with details of such person or authorize an independent director of the Company by ticking the box in front of the name of such independent director on the proxy form.

- (3) Affix crossed out 20 baht revenue stamp on the proxy form. For the convenience of attendants, the Company will facilitate affixing the stamp duty for the registration to attend the meeting.
- (4) Return the completed proxy form to the Company's Corporate Secretary before the meeting date or presents it at the document examination desk before the meeting commences.

The voting right has to be assigned to only one Proxy; therefore, this voting right cannot be split and separately assigned to more than one Proxy.

Shareholders may use other forms of proxy, in which the contents completely comply by law.

IV. Voting Conditions

In each agenda, each shareholder shall have the voting rights equal to the number of shares held (one share one vote). The voting procedures for the shareholders and the shareholders' proxies shall be as follows:

1. Present Shareholders: Shareholders are requested to show their hands if wanting to vote against or abstain their votes for each polling. If there is no show of hands, it will be resolved that the shareholders are in favor of the proposal.
2. Proxies: The voting procedure is as follows.
 - Proxy Form A The shareholders delegate the proxies to exercise their votes in the same manner as the present shareholders.
 - Proxy Form B If the shareholders choose to fix their votes in advance, the Company will collect and record such votes at the time of the meeting registration. If the shareholders delegate the proxies to vote at their discretion or the vote is not clear, the proxies are required to cast their votes in the same manner as the present shareholders.
 - Proxy Form C In case that the custodian fix their votes in advance, they are entitled to have their votes separately in each agenda to approve, disapprove or abstain the items listed such agenda.
3. Ballots: If there are any amendment, erasure or cross-out on any voting marks without signature or initial of shareholders or proxies, the Company shall reserve the right to consider whether the vote shall be wholly or partially void.

The ballots are used for polling. With regard to the directors' election, the ballots for all nominees will be collected at the same time to speed up the process although the voting on the each director nominee will be done on a one by one basis. For other agenda, the ballots with the vote against or abstention will be collected when the Chairman asks for the polling. The remaining would be collected at the end of the meeting. Should the shareholders or the proxies wish to leave the Meeting before voting is completed, their ballots shall be collected at the exit counter and the votes shall be deducted from those registered earlier to ensure transparency and correctness of the voting counting process.
